

"I never expected that an afternoon would change my life! I always loved singing but I never knew I could write songs and sing my own melody with words that come from my heart and soul. It has opened a whole world for me. I am speechless!" Lina Sung - Vancouver and Beijing

"It just blew me away! You brought out a creative spirit in me that I did not realize I had! Plus, you moved something inside of me that I know I have suppressed for quite sometime. I am looking forward to exploring that more with you."

Larelle Cox – Australia

More to read if you need

Hi this is Edwin,

I want to tell you about our one-day seminar "The Wild Voice Extravaganza". This is an experiential learning event! This is not just another seminar where you try and stuff more and more information into your brain. The Wild Voice Extravaganza is all about music! It's about being transformed by the music! It's about your voice, your songs, your music and how to bring it out! It's about witnessing the magic and profundity of everyone's songs! It's about the magnificent sounds we can make together! It's about the transformations we go through to find our music! It's about outrageous fun!

Music directly impacts the cellular emotional intelligence of your body creating transformation from the inside out - powerfully and gracefully. There are feelings deep inside us all that have never been expressed, and when they are expressed they give so much surprising vitality, so much renewed energy, and a sense of freedom.

Come to the Wild Voice Extravaganza!

It's so fulfilling. Making sound with large groups of people is like a bath of energy that you can dip into. This experience will change your whole outlook on life!

Keep singing
Edwin

"This experience took me on a journey through creative passages I had never explored nor believed existed - as well as emotional revelations that now have found their home inside me. Even I do not know the full benefits of this experience as they unfold in the days and weeks to come. All I can say is that it was the most awesome experience of my life!" Marianna Cimino -- Professional Opera Singer, San Francisco, CA

"In all my training and teaching career I have never seen or heard anyone draw out a person's natural singing as quickly or as easily as Mr. Coppard."

Grant Fuergutz -- Bachelor of Music, Master of Education, Kamloops, BC
